

DONOR NAME	WINE NAME/YEAR	WINE PRICE	Rationale
Tannis Richardson	1976 Chateau d'Yquem Sauternes	$1,000	The 1976 Chateau d'Yquem reaffirms its reputation as one of the great wines of the decade. Deep and slightly burnished in color, it offers dried pineapple, barley sugar, almond and a cheeky puff of café latte. At its peak now, enjoy this great d'Yquem over the next 20-30 years. Tasted April 2016.
Brian Bjorklund	2012 Duorum Reserva Old Vines	$51	This intense wine can be enjoyed now through 2021. With chocolate mousse accents, tangerine and licorice hints the wine has a zesty acidity.
Maxine Bock	2011 Santiago Graffigna Limited Release Malbec/Cabernet Sauvignon/Shiraz	$56	This wine is an exquisite blend like all good friendships. Enjoy!
Borys, Stephen & Hazel	2014 Belle Glos Pinot Noir Clark & Telephone Vineyard	$60
Stephen & Hazel Borys	2013 Emolo Merlot Emmolo Winery, Napa Valley	$70

Jan Burns	2013 Cuvee Madeline, Cabernet Franc, Pearl Morissette Vineyard	$50	A natural wine (a pure wine - no added sulfites). A distinguished Canadian wine. A wonderful wine with winter roasted meat and vegetables. Delicious served on its own.
George and Andrea Cibinel	2012 Tommasi Amarone Della Valpolicella Classico	$60	We have Italian roots and like to celebrate that in the style of Bacchus, "the Roman god of wine and whoopi."
Ken & Lynn Cooper	Tolaini (2011) Castelnuovo Berardenga Chianti Classico Gran Selezione	$54
Alison and Bob Darling	2008 La Fiorita, Brunello di Montalcino	$65	This is Tom DeNardi's favorite wine
Doug Everett & Lila Goodspeed Everett	Madeira Fine Old Malmsey Casa Dos Vinhos – N/V	$150	Desirable dessert wine or served as aperitif classic - wine that is timeless and very versatile.

Heather Frame	Merry Edwards Pinot Noir, Sebastopol California 2006	$78	Merry Edwards was one of California's first women winemakers.
Bill & Sherry Glanville	2012 - Cabernet Sauvignon The Mint Thelema South Africa	$52	This was recommended by Kenaston Wine Market as a flavourful dry white wine.
Bill & Sherry Glanville	Chablis Premier Cru, Domaine Daniel Dampt et Fils Beauroy, 2014	$57	Following our recent WAG Travel Tour to South Africa, we chose this wine from the Stellenbosch region which we visited.
Lewie Gonsalves - World Wide Quest	Pangea Syrah, Apalta Vineyard, Colchagua Valley, Chile, 2011	$57	This is a great Chilean vineyard with Australian Shiraz expertise.
Barbara and Alex Holliday	Quail's Gate Pinot Noir, Okanogan Valley Stewart Family Reserve 2014	$50	One of our favourite wines when we lived in the Okanagan, this elegant New World-style Pinot Noir goes beautifully with lamb, game or BC salmon - or is delicious on its own. Enjoy until 2025.
Elsie Hughes	2014 Chateau d'Aussieres - Bordeaux (Lafite)	$50	This wine is special because it is produced in a vineyard whose wines are rated in the top classification of Bordeaux.

Leslie Iredale	2014 Chablis Premier Cru, Les Lys, Daniel Dampt et fils	$50	As a long time Associate of the WAG, I am pleased to support the raffle where funds will be directed to the Impressionist exhibition.
Jim and Sue Irving	Chatea d'Aussieres Bordeaux (Lafite) 2014	$50	This wine is special because it is produced in a vineyard whose wines are rated in the top classification of Bordeaux.
Sheryl Kapitz	Clos L'Oratoire des Papes Chateauneuf-du-Pape 2014	$53	This is one of the outstanding wines of the region of Chateau-neuf-du-Pape.
Judy Kaprowy	2013 Zisola Nero d'Avola - syrah-Cabernet Franc blend, Mazzei Zisola Doppiozeta Noto Rosso	$55	Well balanced and juicy throughout, with fine grained tannins that build well on the lasting lasting finish.
Judy Kaprowy	2013 Cuvée Madeleine, Pearl Morissette, Cabernet Franc	$55	Canadian vineyard that produces limited quantities of quality wine that reveals the beauty of the Niagra vine region. It is a stunner of a wine. Beautifully aromatic and fully ripe.

John King and Rochelle Yanofsky	Quail's Gate Pinot Noir, Okanogan Valley Stewart Family Reserve 2014	$50	This wine celebrates Canada's 150th anniversary. It is a great wine because of its versatility for food pairings.
Keith & Susan Knox	Télégramme Chateauneuf du Pape 2014 Famille Brunier (Vignerons)	$74	This fall we sampled many a Chateau-neuf-du-Pape 2014 while vacationing in Provence, France - they were all good!
Randie & Jan Kushnier	2011 No. 99 "The One" Bordeaux Wayne Gretzky Estates, Kelowna B.C.	$99	A great one from "The Great One." Only one barrel of this was produced.
Christine Lylyk	Bouchard Finlayson, Galpin Peak Pinot Noir 2009	$65	Classic Pinot Noir - one of the very best from South Africa (Walker Bay).
John MacAulay	2010 Cakebread Chardonnay Cakebread Cellars, Napa Valley	$83

Ben MacPhee-Sigurdson	Laughing Stock Vineyards 2015 Portfolio (Okanagan Valley, B.C.)	$50	This Bordeaux-style red blend is mostly Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon sourced from vineyards on the Naramata Bench and around Osoyoos. The warm 2015 vintage ensured great concentration of fruit; combined with 20 months aging in French oak, it should evolve beautifully over the next 7-10 years.
Aubrey Margolis and Kim Wiebe	Cabernet Sauvignon Beringer Vineyards, Napa California, Knights Valley 2014	$56	This is a favourite wine that has many pleasant memories for us.
Elaine & Neil Margolis	Cabernet Sauvignon Niner Wine Estates, Paso Robles California, 2014	$60	Highly complimented at dinner party. Dark cherry notes, complex and elegant structure.
Janice Mason Steeves	Chateau Caronnes Ste. Gemme/Haut-Medoc Red Bordeaux 2012	$50	This wine is the defining expression of Cabernet Sauvignon. The Wine Spectator Magazine calls this wine "a rising star in the Medoc region, France."
Brian Mayes	Quails' Gate Pinot Noir, Okanagan Valley Stewart Family Reserve 2015	$50	To celebrate Canada's 150th birthday, this is an ideal wine because of its versatility for food pairings.

Pat McCullough	Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Brut Champagne, Reims, France	$73	I celebrated my birthday with my family who live in Haida Gwaii over a dinner of fresh prawns and a bottle of Veuve Clicquot champagne. A fabulous dinner full of love and laughter. I hope the winner of this bottle can share it with loved ones to celebrate one of their own special occasions.
MCW/AGE Consulting Professional Engineers	2013 Ethos Reserve Chardonnay Columbia Valley	$60	An adventure in wine tasting and experience to share with friends and family.
Peter and Angela North	Piper-Heidsieck Brut Champagne, France - N/V	$60	No special reason needed to drink Champagne!
Dr. Bill Pope and Dr. Elizabeth Tippett-Pope	Clos de L'oratoire des Papes - Chateauneuf-du-Pape 2013	$53	My favourite red wine. We have visited Chateau-neuf-du-Pape at harvest time. A memory for a lifetime.

Sylvia Segal	2008 Moet & Chandon Champagne Grand Vintage	$88	This champagne is a special vintage - 2008. As a long time Associate I am pleased to support the Impressionist exhibition - summer 2018.
Pamela Simmons	Belle Glos Clark & Telephone Pinot Noir, Santa Maria Valley California 2014	$60	Ranks #2 in Best Wines in its price range up to $80, Top 1% of wines in the world 4.5 rating
Ben and Lisa Sparrow	Donatella Cinelli Colombini Brunello di Montalcino Italy 2012	$78	The winery itself is owned by seven women that are usually depicted by doves on the labels of their bottles. This Brunello has flavours and aromas of flowers, strawberries with hints of earth, underbrush, iron and a savoury finish oaky finish. Drink now or hold until 2032.
Ben and Lisa Sparrow	Talarn Syrah, Castell d'Encus, Costers Del Segre Spain 2012	$72	This wine is very reminiscent of northern Rhone Syrah with its wild slightly rustic character. The nose – complex and intense. Floral notes and spiced (clove and pepper). In the mouth – silky with nerve at the start. Soft tannins. Fresh fruit (cherries) and spicy and undergrowth finish. Drink until 2022.

Danya & Charlie Spiring	Don Melchor Vina Concha Y Toro Cabernet Sauvignon 2001	$90	This wine was purchased from the winery in Chile. This winery produces only high quality wines meant for aging and storage. Can be enjoyed now or until 2023.
