

Jennifer Stillwell

Jennifer Stillwell is a Winnipeg-based contemporary visual artist who primarily works with sculpture and installation. In 2000 she received an MFA with highest distinction from The School of the Art Institute of Chicago and has since exhibited widely. She has created large-scale installations in post-industrial spaces including at the Darling Foundry (Montreal) and at Triple Candie (New York). Other solo exhibitions include YYZ Artists' Outlet (Toronto) and a recent survey show at Plug In ICA (Winnipeg).

In 2008 Jennifer represented Manitoba as an invited artist at the Biennale Nationale de Sculpture Contemporaine in Trois-Rivières, Quebec and in 2009 she was invited to create a site-specific outdoor work at Les Jardins du Précambrien in Val David, Quebec. In the last few years she has been a part of several group exhibitions including at the Winnipeg Art Gallery, Oakville Galleries, the Art Gallery of Windsor, and Loop-Raum Für Aktuelle Kunst in Berlin. She has attended residencies at the Banff Centre for the Arts (Banff), Gibraltar Point (Toronto), Kunst & Complex (Rotterdam), Fondation Derouin (Quebec) and Quartier Éphémère (Montreal). Jennifer was a semifinalist for the preeminent Sobey Art Award in both 2002 and 2006.
